MEMORANDUM FOR: Associate Deputy Director
for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Request to Make a Public Appearance

1. The undersigned requests approval to address the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs at Princeton University. The topic will be "The Developmental Economy of Communist China" and in substance will focus on the developmental economic policies and practices of the People's Republic of China. The discussion will be based on unclassified source material such as the recent JEC publication on the Chinese economy and recent OER Research Aids.

2. The request was made by Professor Gilpin of the Woodrow Wilson School. My name was suggested by a student of his who was a Woodrow Wilson Fellow with the State Department this past summer. A copy of Professor Gilpin's letter is attached.

3. I will advise Professor Gilpin that I should be identified as an economic analyst with the Office of Economic Research, C.I.A. I will, of course, turn down the honorarium.

4. The talk will be held March 15, 1976.

Dear Mr. MacFarlane:

STATINTL

I was delighted to learn from [REDACTED] that you are willing to speak here on Communist China. Wednesday, March 15th would be best for us. The seminar would begin at 4:30 p.m. and, if you wish, there would be a small dinner afterwards. You could get a train back to Washington that night or we could arrange accommodations for you here.

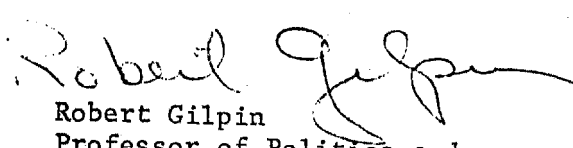

Unless you have another title in mind, I suggest "The Political Economy of Communist China." Also, unless you wish the talk to be off the record, we will advertise it and invite the general public.

Would you please let me know as soon as possible whether these arrangements suit you? Also, how do you wish to be identified? We would also like to request a photograph and personal statement for the School's newsletter.

We will, of course, reimburse you for your expenses and can offer a modest honorarium of $100.

I look forward to your visit to Princeton.

Sincerely,

Robert Gilpin
Professor of Politics and International Affairs
